User Stories:

1. User needs to be able to create a character with a name and assign them to a team.
   a. AC - User should be able to register and create a character returning a 200OK.
2. User needs to be able to see list of characters showing the character name and their team name.
   a. Should be able to run a get endpoint to show all characters with above criteria with a 200OK response.
3. User needs to be able get certain characters based on a unique identifier that shows the character name, when it was created (and/or modified), it's team name, and its list of features.
   a. User should be able to put in a TeamId in URL and a 200OK response should appear with specific character requested.
4. User needs to be able to create specific creatures and assign them to a specific character
   a. 200OK response, with a feature created to the database.
5. User needs to see all characters with a specific feature
   a. 200OK Response with a chosen feature displaying character name and team name for that desired feature.
6. User needs to be able to create a team with a team name solely.
   a. 200 OK response, with a team created to the database.
7. User needs to be able to see a list of characters for a certain team.
   a. 200OK response, showing list of characters by their name for chosen team.